Run from the moon

7 2 3

Chapter 1 by wolf girl12345

Today started as a normal day I woke up brushed my teeth had breakfast then sat down to watch t.v. When I turned it on there was a breaking news report about the moon getting closer, and closer to earth. I was thinking yeah right but boy was I wrong

Chapter 2 by Adsy

I thought to myself, "I wonder what the people on the side of the word are thinking hearing this news, and not seeing the moon yet"?

There was no time to reflect on this though as I had more immediate concerns. The first of which was, where are we supposed to run to? Surely the smart sciency types at NASA or something have figured out why it's doing this, and where and when it's going to hit? Then we need to work out supplies, how to get there, who gets to go there, and why.

Should I, Stanley Brickworth, strive forward and help humanity to become a beacon of hope to everyone, or do I wallow in fear and spend these moments with my family thinking how we as a race will be doomed?
